CRITICAL DIGESTS AND NOTICES OF BOOKS:

Nothnagel on the Regional Diagnosis of Diseases of the Brain. By D. Ferrier, M.D. .......................... 85
Huxley on the Crayfish. An Introduction to the Study of Zoology. By F. Jeffrey Bell, M.A. ..................... 99
The Index Medicus. By J. Crichton-Browne, M.D. .......... 111
Morris on Skin Diseases. By J. Crichton-Browne, M.D. ...................... 112
Bastian on the Brain as an Organ of Mind. By John Charles Bucknill, M.D., F.R.S. ........................... 216
Lindsay on Mind in the Lower Animals, in Health and Disease. By F. L. Benham, M.B. ......................... 225
Landouzy on Paralysis in Acute Disease. By A. de Watteville, M.A., B.Sc. ........................................ 233
Mickle on General Paralysis of the Insane. By J. C. Bucknill ......................................................... 239
Erlenmeyer on the Physiology and Pathology of Writing. By H. de Watteville, M.D. ............................ 363
Brisauad on Hemiplegic Contracture. By David Ferrier, M.D. ...................................................... 365
Scientific Transcendentalism. By F. L. Benham, M.B. .............................................................. 374
Heidenhain on Animal Magnetism. By David Ferrier, M.D. .......................................................... 383
Vulpian’s Maladies de la Moelle. By A. de Watteville, M.D. ....................................................... 516
Aitken on the Science and Practice of Medicine. By J. Crichton-Browne, M.D. ............................. 528

CLINICAL CASES:

Arrest of Development in the Left Upper Limb, in Association with an Extremely Small Right Ascending Parietal Convolution. By H. Charlton Bastian, M.D., F.R.S., and V. Horsley .................................................. 113
Case of Nerve-Splitting. By Surgeon-Major K. M’Leod, A.M., M.D. .................................................. 117
Cases of Intra-Cranial Tumour. By James Ross, M.D. ................................................................. 121
Case of Alternate Hemiplegia, with Conjugate Deviation of the Eyes. By Alexander M. McAldowie, M.D. ................................................................. 125
Crural Monoplegia—Limited Cortical Lesion of Opposite Hemisphere. By David Ferrier, M.D., F.R.S. ........ 128
Case of Microcephalic Idiocy. By A. R. Urquhart, M.D. ............................................................. 246
Case of Cerebral Tumour. By Arthur W. Fox, M.B., and Ernest Field, M.B. ........................................ 252
Case of Progressive Muscular Atrophy. By Byrom Bramwell, M.D. .................................................. 396
Case of Compound Fracture of the Skull. By T. Priddin Teale, M.A. ................................................ 400
Case of Athetosis. By Lewis Shapter, M.D. ...................................................................................... 402
CONTENTS.

Case of Congenital Absence of the Corpus Callosum. By A. R. Urquhart, M.D. ........................................ 408
A Case of Epilepsy. By Charles Mercier, M.B. ...................................................................................... 532
Case of Hemiplegia and Hemanesthesia in an Idiot, as the Result of Paralysis of the Left Cerebral Hemisphere. By Donald Fraser, M.D. ........................................... 536
An Obscure Case of Brain Disease. By M. Handfield Jones, L.R.C.P. .......................................................... 542

ABSTRACTS OF BRITISH AND FOREIGN JOURNALS:

Innervation des Vaisseaux Cutanés (Dastre et Morat). Étude sur la Physiologie des Nerfs des Muscles Striés (Techiriew). By A. Waller, M.D. ................................................................. 132
Primary Athetosis (Gnauck). By W. J. Dodds, M.D., D.Sc. ..................................................................... 136
A Case confirming Cerebral Localisation (Tamburini). Caizergue's Case of Cerebral Localisation. Lactic Acid as a Hypnotic. By W. W. Ireland, M.D. ................................................. 137
Relations of Brain, Mind, and Higher Nerve Function. By W. G. Thompson, M.D. .................................. 141
Method of Preserving the Brain (Giacomini). By Allen Thomson, F.R.S. ..................................................... 257
Krug on the Sulci of the Zonoplacental Mammalian Brain. By H. Obersteiner ............................................. 259
Féré sur le Développement du Cerveau, &c. Amidon on a New Study of Cerebral Localisation. By A. Waller, M.B. ........................................................................................................ 260
Visceral Neurology. By J. Mitchell Bruce, M.D. .......................................................................................... 263
Buzzard on certain Points in Tabes Dorsalis. By J. Hughlings-Jackson ...................................................... 266
On the Disease called Sturdy in Sheep, in its relation to Cerebral Localisation. By George T. Beatson, B.A., M.D. ........................................................................................................ 282
Tripier on Anaesthesia from Cortical Lesions. Sommer on Diseases of the Cornu Ammonis. By D. Ferrier .................................................................................................................. 286
The Central Sulci in the Carnivora—The Brain of the Hippopotamus—The Brain of the Bush Dog. By J. C. Galton, M.A. ............................................................................................................. 413
Exner on Cerebral Localisation. By H. Obersteiner ..................................................................................... 416 on Segmentary Peri-axillary Neuritis—Grasset on Locomotor Ataxy and Heart Disease—Tschiriew on Lesions of the Spinal Cord and Skin in a Case of Anaesthetic Leprosy—Pott's Disease and Progressive Muscular Atrophy. By David Ferrier, M.D. 417
Kahler and Pick on the Pathology and Pathological Anatomy of the Central Nervous System. By W. J. Dodd, D.Sc. 427
Boyer and Decaisne on Cortical Lesions. By A. R. Urquhart, M.D. 430
Magnan on Word Blindness—Delaunay on Memory. By A. R. Urquhart, M.D. 552
Buzzard on Transfer-Phenomena in Epilepsy produced by Encircling Blisters. By J. Hughlings-Jackson, M.D. 554
Lüderitz on Experiments on the Effect of Pressure on Motor and Sensory Nerves, &c.—Brieger on Paralysis from Flight. By R. H. Pierson, M.D. 555
Onimus on Modifications in the Excitability of the Nerves and Muscles after Death. By A. Waller, M.D. 556
Strümpell on the Pathology of the Spinal Cord—Westphal on Syphilis and Tabes Dorsalis—Pick on Agenesis of the Spinal Cord—Moel on Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis—Shaw on Sub-acute Myelitis of the Anterior Cornua. By W. J. Dodds, M.B., B.Sc. 560
Maragliano on the Nitrite of Amyl in Epilepsy. By W. W. Ireland, M.D. 575

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS.

Distribution of the Arteries of the Spinal Cord:

Fig. 1. Schematic Representation of the Distribution of the Blood-Vessels in the Cord (Woodcut) . . . . . 81

Arrest of Development in the Left Upper Limb: 3 Figures (Plate) . 113

Form and Topographical Relation of the Corpus Striatum (Woodcuts):

Fig. 1. Brain in Transverse Vertical Section . . . . . 147
Fig. 2. Brain of Fox (Profile view) . . . . . 148
Fig. 3. Human Brain (Profile view) . . . . . 149
Fig. 4. Human Brain; Median Surface of the Right Hemisphere . 151
Fig. 5. Longitudinal and Vertical Section of the Right Hemisphere, showing Cavity of Lateral Ventricle (seen from the Inner Side) 153
Fig. 6. Longitudinal and Vertical Section of the Right Hemisphere, through Corpus Striatum and Suraline (seen from the Inner Side) . . . . . . . . 156
Fig. 7. Horizontal Section of the Brain, through the Anterior Commis sure and Lower Part of the Cerebral Ganglia . . . . . 158

"Tendon-Reflex" (Woodcuts):

Fig. 1. Nerve Transmission Rapidity . . . . . 186
Fig. 2. Knee-Clonus . . . . . 187
Fig. 3. Ankle-Clonus . . . . . 187
Fig. 4. Tendon-percussion Latency of Rectus . . . . . 188
Fig. 5. Tendon-percussion Latency of Gastrocnemius . . . . . 188
Fig. 6. Electric Latency of Rectus . . . . . 189

Microcephalic Idiocy:

Head-measurements (half Life-size) of E. F. . . . . . 250
Optical Illusions of Motion (Four Woodcuts) . . . . . 292-295
Functional Athetosis . . . . . . . . . . 402
